The competition invites children in London Boroughs to design a kit for their sports team, with 3 winners selected to have their design produced into a kit for their team.

Separately, there will be an additional competition running on social media, giving one entrant the chance to win a single printed kit for themselves by sharing their design on Facebook with the tags #AtticsStrikeingKits @atticselfstorage.

To take part, children must create and submit a kit design using the template located on the Attic website as a base. The kit will consist of a pair of shorts and a t-shirt. Designs must be submitted using this template, with the Attic logo visible on the kit. Entries will be judged on factors including creativity, uniqueness and ingenuity.

Entries can be uploaded directly to the Attic website in the form of a jpeg or pdf image along with the required entry details:

1. Name & age of Entrant
2. Name & address of school/club
3. Email address of parent/school/club
4. Brief description of the inspiration for the design
